

APPAREL ENTREPRENEURSHIP

DEPARTMENT OF HOME & FAMILY

Welcome!

Welcome to the Apparel Entrepreneurship program! We are thrilled to have you join our community of aspiring apparel professionals and entrepreneurs. In the Apparel Entrepreneurship program, you will have the opportunity to acquire a comprehensive set of skills that will empower you to excel in the apparel industry, whether by contributing to established companies or by launching your own entrepreneurial ventures. Our program is thoughtfully designed to provide you with a well-rounded education encompassing various aspects of apparel design, production, business management, and entrepreneurship. Within the program, you will take courses in fashion design and merchandising, pattern making, fitting and alteration, textile science, and business, among others. These courses are meticulously crafted to equip you with the knowledge, technical expertise, and creative acumen needed to thrive in the dynamic and ever-evolving apparel industry. One of the unique features of our program is its emphasis on entrepreneurial skills and mindset. While many students may choose to pursue careers within established companies, we also recognize and nurture the entrepreneurial spirit within each of our students. Whether you aspire to work in a design team, excel in production management, specialize in technical apparel design, become proficient in CAD pattern making, or even launch your own apparel-related business, our program is designed to support your goals and aspirations.
